POLITICAL.

Camp Mooltan, the 26th October 1872.

No. 25A CP.—At 10 A. M. on Thursday, the 24th October, a deputation, consisting of the Commissioner of the Mooltan Division, the Viceroy's Military Secretary, the Under Secretary in the Foreign Department, and one of His Excellency's Aides-de-Camp, proceeded to the Camp of His Highness the Nawab of Bhawalpoor to enquire after His Highness's health.

Four of the Nawab's principal Sirdars came out some distance from his residence to receive and escort the deputation into His Highness's presence.

The Nawab received the British Officers at his tent door and conducted them to their seats. After a few minutes' conversation they took leave, being presented with uttar and pán and conducted to the place of reception.

PRIVATE DURBAR.

At 1 P. M. on Thursday, the 24th of October, His EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY AND GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA received His Highness the Nawab of Bhawalpoor at a Private Durbar. The Nawab proceeded to the Viceroy's Camp in a carriage, escorted by a troop of Bhawalpoor Cavalry, accompanied by the Political Agent at Bhawalpoor and by eight of the principal Sirdars of the State. The Deputy Commissioner of Mooltan, the Under Secretary in the Foreign Department, and an Aide-de-Camp to His EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY met His Highness on horseback at the end of the centre street of the Camp.

The Foreign Secretary met His Highness at the door of the tent, and conducted him to His EXCELLENCY's presence. The Viceroy received His Highness at a distance of four paces from the Throne, and conducted him to a seat at his right hand. On the right of the Nawab were seated the Foreign Secretary, the Political Agent at Bhawalpoor, the Deputy Commissioner of Mooltan, the Under Secretary in the Foreign Department, and the Sirdars of Bhawalpoor, according to their rank. The Viceroy's Private and Military Secretaries and Personal Staff sat on the left of His EXCELLENCY.

When conducted to the Viceroy's presence, His Highness the Nawab presented a nuzzur of 12 ducats ("boodkas").

After a few minutes' conversation, His Highness's Sirdars were introduced by the Under Secretary, and each presented a nuzzur of one gold-mohur, which was touched and remitted.

Uttar and pán were then given to the Nawab by the Viceroy himself, and to the attendant Sirdars by the Under Secretary.

The ceremonies at reception were repeated at His Highness's departure.

A salute of 17 guns was fired on the arrival and departure of the Nawab; troops were drawn up to line the centre street of the Camp; and a Guard of Honor at the entrance of the tent presented arms as His Highness passed.

RETURN VISIT.

At 3-30 P. M. on the 24th October, His EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY AND GOVERNOR GENERAL paid a Return Visit to the Nawab of Bhawalpoor, escorted by a body of Cavalry.

The Foreign Secretary, the Commissioner of the Division, the Brigadier-General with the Brigade Staff, the Viceroy's Private and Military Secretaries, the Under Secretary in the Foreign Department, and His Excellency's Personal Staff, accompanied the Viceroy.

At 3-20 p. m. four principal Officers of the State waited upon the GOVERNOR GENERAL at the Viceregal Camp, and conducted His Excellency to the Nawab's residence.

The Nawab himself proceeded to a distance of 200 yards to meet the VICEROY, escorted him to his residence, and there conducted him to a seat at his right hand. The Foreign Secretary, the Political Agent of Bhawalpoor, the Under Secretary in the Foreign Department, and the Sirdars of the Bhawalpoor State, were seated on the left of the Nawab.

On the right of the VICEROY were seated the Commissioner of the Division, the Brigadier-General with the Brigade Staff, the VICEROY's Private and Military Secretaries, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

The Officials and Sirdars of the Bhawalpoor State were then introduced to the VICEROY by the Under Secretary. They each presented a nuzzur of one gold-mohur, which was touched and remitted.

The Nawab's tributary offering was next brought in on 125 trays.

Uttur and pân were given by the Nawab himself to the VICEROY, to the Foreign Secretary, to the Commissioner of the Division, to the Brigadier General, and to the VICEROY's Private and Military Secretaries, and by the principal Officer of the State to the other Officers present.

The ceremonies attending the VICEROY's arrival were repeated at His Excellency's departure. A Royal Salute was fired on each occasion.

A Guard of Honor was drawn up at the Nawab's residence.

"NAWAB FOUJDAR KHAN,—You have already received tokens of the favor of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen. You have served the British Government long and faithfully. Your services at Mooltan, and in the rebellion of 1857, and also as the British Representative at Cabool for many years, are not forgotten. It gives me great pleasure to confer on you this Dress of Honor."

"MORAD SHAH,—I confer this Dress of Honor upon you on the recommendation of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor in recognition of the assistance you have given to the Political Agent at Bhawalpoor."

"IMAM BUKSH KHAN,—I have great pleasure in conferring on you this Dress of Honor in appreciation of the excellent services you have always performed in taking the leading part in the reformation and management of your tribe, and in helping the Local Officers of the British Government to promote good relations with the hill tribes on the Sind and Rajanpoor borders."

"MEERAN KHAN,—Your zealous endeavours to assist the Local Officers of the British Government in maintaining peace on the border and good feeling with the frontier tribes are fully appreciated. It is known to me that your father and 27 of your tribe were killed fighting for the British Government in 1857. It gives me much pleasure to confer on you this Dress of Honor."

"GHOLAM HYDER KHAN,—I confer on you this Dress of Honor in recognition of your improved management of your tribe and of the willing assistance you have always afforded to the Deputy Commissioner of the Dera Ghazi Khan District in dealing with the independent tribes across the frontier."

When presenting the dresses to others selected for the honor, His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General addressed a few words to each expressive of the pleasure he felt in conferring the distinction.

The Viceroy then rose from the Throne, all present simultaneously rising, and delivered the following address to the assembled Chiefs :—

"NAWABS, CHIEFS, AND NATIVE GENTLEMEN,—I am very glad to visit Mooltan and have this opportunity of meeting you.

"I am glad also to be able, before I leave the Punjab, publicly to express my gratification at the loyalty to the Queen which has been shown by the cordiality with which I have been welcomed as Her Representative in this ancient City and throughout the whole Province.

"NAWAB OF BHAWULPOOR,—Your Highness is old enough to appreciate the responsibility which will fall upon you as the ruler of one of the most important States in the Punjab. The manner in which the years which will intervene before you are called to the Government are spent will be very important both to your own reputation and to the happiness of your people. I am glad to hear that Your Highness is devoting yourself with assiduity to the acquirement of useful knowledge, and of those qualifications which are necessary for the proper discharge of your duties.

"CHIEFS OF THE FRONTIER TRIBES, SUBJECTS OF HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN,—I welcome you to this Durbar.

"Your Commissioner has informed me of the cordial assistance you have rendered to the Local Officers in the maintenance of peace and order and in the promotion of friendly relations with the Independent Chiefs beyond the border.

"INDEPENDENT CHIEFS,—I am glad to see so many of you here to-day. I look upon it as a proof of your confidence in the British Government, and of your desire to maintain and promote friendly intercourse with the British Officers.

"As the Representative of the Queen, it is my duty to ensure peace within Her dominions. So long as this is secured, the British Government will not interfere with your independence, and our wish is to see you living at peace one with another, and enjoying prosperity and happiness."

A translation of the address in Hindoostanee was then read by the Foreign Secretary, after which uttur and pān were distributed to the Nawab of Bhawalpoor by the Foreign Secretary, and by the Under Secretary to the Nawab's attendants and the three Durbarees highest in order of precedence.

After the above ceremonies, THE VICEROY AND GOVERNOR GENERAL left the Durbar under a Royal Salute, followed by the cortège that accompanied His Excellency on his entrance, and the assembly was dismissed.

No. 56 CP.—The following Resolution of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India in Council is published for information :—

At a Meeting of the Council of India held on Thursday, the 3rd October 1872—

Resolved, that the provisions of the Act 33rd Vic., Cap. 3, to make better provision for making Laws and Regulations for certain parts of India, Section 1, be, and the same are, hereby made applicable to the districts noted in the margin hereof, from and after the 1st day of January 1873.

Kohistan.	Kukkur.
Johee.	Kumbur.
Nasirabad.	Jacobabad.
Soojawul.	Thoole.
Sehwan.	Kusmore.

No. 57 CP.—With reference to the preceding Notification, the following Regulation is published for general information :—

Whereas the Secretary of State for India in Council has, by resolution in Council, declared the provisions of the Thirty-third of Victoria, Chapter three, Section one, to be applicable from the first day of January 1873 to the districts of Kohistan, Johee, Nasirabad, Soojawul, Sehwan, Kukkur, Kumbur, Jacobabad, Thoole and Kusmore, bordering on the frontier of Sind, from Mithce on the Indus to the sea, west of Kurrachee :

And whereas the Governor of Bombay in Council has proposed to the Governor General in Council a draft of the following Regulation, together with the reasons for proposing the same, for the peace and government of the said districts :

And whereas the Governor General in Council has taken such draft and reasons into consideration, and has approved of such draft, and the same has received the Governor General's assent :

In pursuance of the direction contained in the said section, the following Regulation is now published in the Gazette of India, and will be published in the Local Gazette, and will thereupon have the force of law :—

1. In the event of any frontier tribe acting in a hostile or unfriendly manner to the British Government, it shall be lawful for the Collector and Magistrate of the district, with the previous sanction of the Commissioner in Sind, to sentence to simple imprisonment, for such term as he thinks fit, all or any members of the said tribe, and to detain or confiscate their property (provided that the person so sentenced, and the property so detained or confiscated, be within British territory), and also to debar members of the tribe from access into British territory, and to prohibit British subjects from all intercourse with such tribe.

2. No new hamlet, village, tower, or walled enclosure shall be erected in British territory, within 20 miles from the frontier line, without the consent of the Collector and Magistrate of the district, who shall have power to prohibit the erection thereof if deemed necessary.

In the event of the Collector and Magistrate prohibiting such erection, he must record the grounds of his decision. The Collector and Magistrate shall also have power to pull down any such walled enclosure erected without his knowledge.

3. The Deputy Collector and Magistrate of the division of the district, with the concurrence of the Collector and Magistrate of the district, may impose fines on village communities, the members of which, after due enquiry, are found to be guilty of colluding with or harbouring criminals, or combining to suppress evidence in criminal cases :

Provided that when the fine imposed shall exceed Rs. (10) ten per head of offenders of the village, the case shall be referred for sanction to the Commissioner in Sind.

All fines imposed under this section shall be recoverable, in default of payment, in the same manner as arrears of land revenue.

4. When any person is known or believed to have a blood feud or other cause of quarrel likely to lead to bloodshed with parties beyond the border, the Collector and Magistrate may require such person to reside beyond the limits of the territory to which these rules apply, or in such place within the territory as he may deem desirable :

Provided that if such person be a resident of the village, hamlet, or place from which he is required to remove, the sanction of the Commissioner in Sind be obtained.

5. Whenever it may be expedient, on military grounds, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner in Sind to direct the removal of any village on the immediate border to any other site within 50 miles of the original site, and to award such sums to the inhabitants as shall, in the opinion of the Commissioner in Sind, be proper compensation for any loss which may have been occasioned to them by such removal. The Commissioner shall grant an order on the proper officer for the amount of the compensation awarded.

6. When a person is accused of murder or other offence punishable under the Indian Penal Code with death or transportation for life, and the case appears to the Collector and

Magistrate to be one which, from the inadequacy of evidence or other causes, it is not expedient to try according to the ordinary procedure, the Collector and Magistrate may cause the case to be referred to the decision of elders convened according to the Pathan or Belooch or other caste usage, and cause such decision to be carried into effect as if it were a sentence of court, provided such sentence shall extend only to the infliction of a fine on the convicted party.

7. Any man who has sexual intercourse with a person who is, and whom he knows, or has reason to believe to be, the wife of another man, without the consent or connivance of that man, such sexual intercourse not amounting to the offence of rape; and any married woman who, knowingly, and by her own consent, has sexual intercourse with any man who is not her husband, without the consent or connivance of her husband, is guilty of the offence of adultery, and shall be punished with rigorous or simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, or with fine, or with both.

8. The Collector and Magistrate of the district, any Magistrate of the 1st class, enquiring into the case, or with the sanction of the Collector and Magistrate of the district, any Magistrate duly empowered to commit to the Court of Sessions, may, after recording his reason for so doing, tender a pardon to any one or more of the persons supposed to have been directly or indirectly concerned in or privy to any offence, on condition of his or their making a full, true, and fair disclosure of the whole of the circumstances within his or their knowledge, relative to the crime committed and every other person concerned in the perpetration thereof.

Any person accepting a tender of pardon under this section shall be examined as a witness in the case under the rules applicable to the examination of witnesses.

Such person, if not on bail, shall be detained in custody, pending the termination of the trial.

A Magistrate having tendered a pardon under this section, and examined the accused person, is precluded from trying the case himself.

9. Persons offending against any of the rules here laid down, or against any prohibition or requisition made under the 1st, 2nd, 4th, or 5th sections of this Regulation, shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment, rigorous or simple, which may extend to six months, or fine which may extend to Rupees 1,000.

10. In every district, a Register shall be kept up of all cases dealt with under this Regulation, and a statement of all such cases shall be submitted half-yearly to the Commissioner in Sind.

11. In so far as this Regulation is inconsistent with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure and the Indian Penal Code, this Regulation supersedes the provisions of those enactments.

The 19th November 1872.
